To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Chris Jordan for 4 years and he's one of the very best people I've ever worked with. As an editor of a national email newsletter, I could always rely on Chris to massage my text into a great looking and eminently readable product -- and he would get the news out to our subscribers on time. He always did so with professionalism, a friendly manner, an eye for good design, and a calm demeanor that I could only envy.

Chris caught more of my errors than I'd like to admit to making. Many times I would notice a mistake after sending him the text and fire off an alarm: "Chris! Can you fix this?" only to hear back that he had already caught it and all was well.

Chris' mastery of web construction was obvious to anyone who dropped by our website. But his sense of design made the site look professional and friendly, -- not to mention easy to navigate. While I was only involved with the website in minor way, I appreciated his skill and his ability to create something that looked as good as it worked. I wholeheartedly recommend Chris as a truly creative person and a pleasure to work with.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss Chris's work further, please feel free to call me at (406) 543-8113.

Sincerely,
John Williams
